

Kentwood Associates announce third annual Highlands Home Tour for May 2nd

Liz Richards and Deviree Vallejo, leading broker associates with Kentwood City Properties, have announced the Third Annual Highlands Home Tour for Sunday, May 2, 2010 from 1-4 p.m.. The home tour will feature brand new construction and modern homes priced from $350,000 to more than $1 million in the popular Highlands neighborhood. The self-guided tour is free and complete details are available online at HighlandHomeTour.com.

"Participants in the Highlands Home Tour can visit any home and pick up a map providing directions to featured residences," said Vallejo. "We will be serving tasty food and wine at all homes on the tour. You can visit impressive condominiums, luxurious townhomes and other residences showcasing a wealth of modern conveniences and designer appointments throughout. You can begin and end your tour any time you want. Don't miss this special opportunity to view exceptional homes in premier Denver locations."

Home "tourists" can view homes with up to four bedrooms, five baths, and 3,050 finished square feet. Select homes showcase two-car garages, incredible views of Invesco Field and downtown Denver cityscapes, and striking architecture. Specific homes feature gourmet kitchens with stainless steel appliances, European cabinets, and hardwood floors, plus family rooms with entertainment centers and cozy fireplaces. Other homes feature open floorplans ideal for entertaining, and master suites and baths designed with pampering in mind.
